

Community Christian School Computer Use Agreement for Students

Community Christian School provides a wide range of computer resources to its students for the purpose of advancing the educational mission of the school. As a user of school computers, you are expected to review and understand the Acceptable Use Procedures.

You are expected to:

1. Protect your logon information from others. Do not use other users' passwords.

2. Exercise good judgment.

3. Respect district property and be responsible in the use of the equipment. Do not destroy, modify or abuse the hardware or software in any way. Parents are responsible for any damages that are incurred to the computer while it is being used by their student and in their care.

4. Do not delete or add software to district computers without permission.

5. Do not use district computers for illegal, harassing, vandalizing, inappropriate or indecent purposes.

6. Do not use the Internet to access or process pornographic or otherwise inappropriate material in concert with the district Internet Safety Policy. Notify an adult whenever coming across information or messages that seem inappropriate.

7. Be ethical and courteous. Do not send hate, harassing or obscene mail, discriminatory remarks, or demonstrate other antisocial behaviors.

8. District computers may not be used to interfere or disrupt other users, services or equipment, including distribution of unsolicited advertising (Spam), propagation of viruses and distribution of large quantities of information (chain letters, network games or broadcasting messages).

9. Do not assume that because something is on the Internet that you can copy it. Respect copyrights.

10. Do not give out any personal information over the Internet.

11. Computers are to be used for educational purposes and with supervision of a teacher or staff member. When the computers are used at home it is the responsibility of the parents to supervise their student in their computer use to make sure they are accessing only CCS appropriate content.

Violation of any of the above conditions of use may be cause for disciplinary action. Violations may constitute cause for revocation of access privileges, suspension of access to schools computers, other school disciplinary action, and/or appropriate legal action.
(CCS has to comply with an Internet Safety Policy in accordance with the Children's Internet Protection Act.)
